EXPERTISE

- Competition law
- Corporate compliance

Gregor advises on German and EU antitrust law (including merger control) and represents national and international companies and associations from industry, trade and the services sector before the Federal Cartel Office and the European Commission, as well as in litigation with an antitrust law element before the German and the European courts. Gregor also advises on all issues surrounding contractual antitrust law.

A further key practice area is supporting national and international companies and associations in the establishment, development and supervision of compliance systems (including compliance audits). He advises in German and English.
