EXPERTISE

- Procurement law
- Construction contracts
- Public funding and subsidy law
- Privately financed infrastructure (PFI)

Hendrik advises primarily public principals and bidders on all questions of public procurement law and represents them in procurement review proceedings. His clients include various municipalities as well as principals from the transport sector (airports, port operators, public transport businesses), the energy sector (city utilities) and the healthcare/pension sectors.

He supports grant recipients in complying with funding conditions and against the recovery of grants in the event of breaches of conditions.
